

Okanagan Regional Library Veronica Lipsett Branch

The branch is named the Veronica Lipsett Memorial Library and is located in the community hall.. A SACA committee the “Friends of the Library” is an active committee and tries to meet monthly. The library is very quiet during the winter but this is more than made up with the library being quite active the rest of the year. It is OPEN every Friday from 1:00 – 2:00 pm and they would love to see you there.

The Mission Statement of the Okanagan Regional Library reads as follows: ”The mission of the Okanagan Regional Library District is to provide equitable access to relevant educational, recreational, and cultural library resources in order to enhance and enrich the lives of community residents.”

Okanagan Regional Library Facts

Established in 1936, the Okanagan Regional Library includes 29 branches serving an area of 23,000 square miles, from Golden to the U.S. border. We have over 222,000 cardholders who borrow more than 3.3 million items annually. In 2005:

- Our staff answered over 470,000 reference questions.
- Our story times and other programs were enjoyed by more than 68,000 children and adults

